Baek Sul! How did this happened? Wake Up!
How did this...!
Please open your eyes!
Oh my god...she
is she sleeping?
Even drooling

Such an idiot.
This idiot! Til when are you going to sleep? Are you still sleeping?
Haa
*Shaking
When are you going to stop being an idiot!?
10 minutes later
*Snore
How did she become this stubborn?
I'm begging you please wake up
Strange...
It's strange how deeply she is asleep
Perhaps it's... poison

How? That can't be. She's probably too tired. She'll wake up soon enough.
If that is it...but .
Oh, if you are that worried, then bring her with us
Are you not going?
This..
It's impossible
It definitely cannot be
What are you doing?
Nothing. Let me carry her

Let's see.
How is it? She's only sleeping, right?
This

She seems to have drank poison.
확
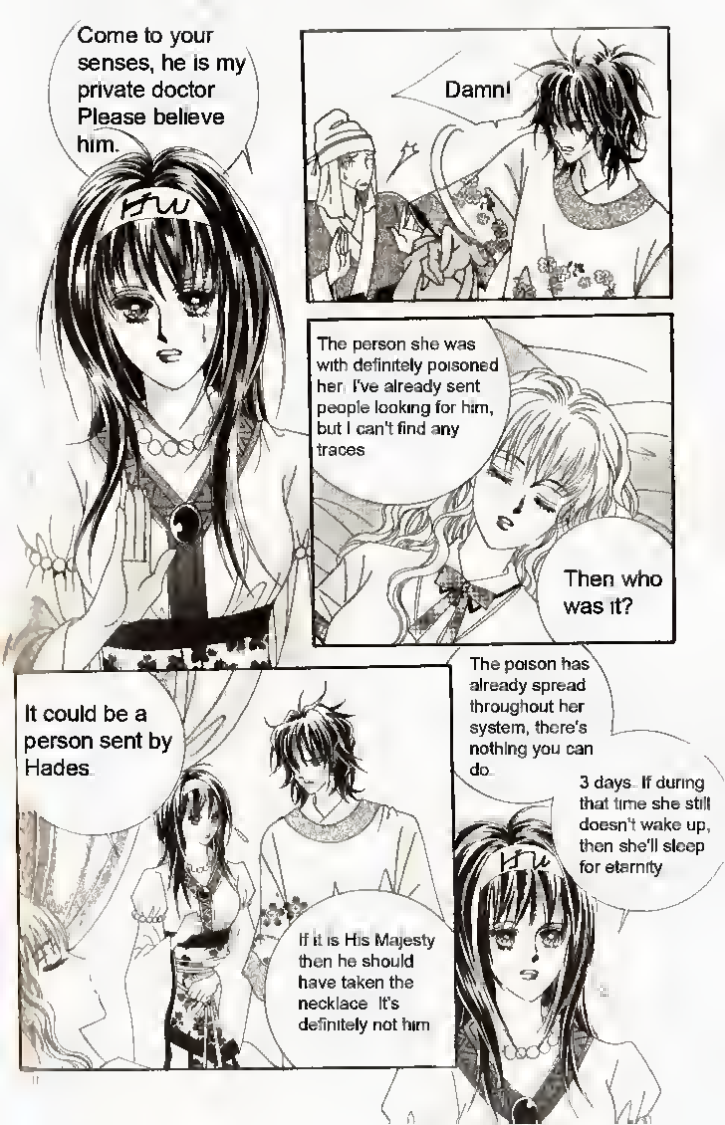
Are you sure? Are you sure that it's poison?
Su..Su.. Sure. I guarantee it



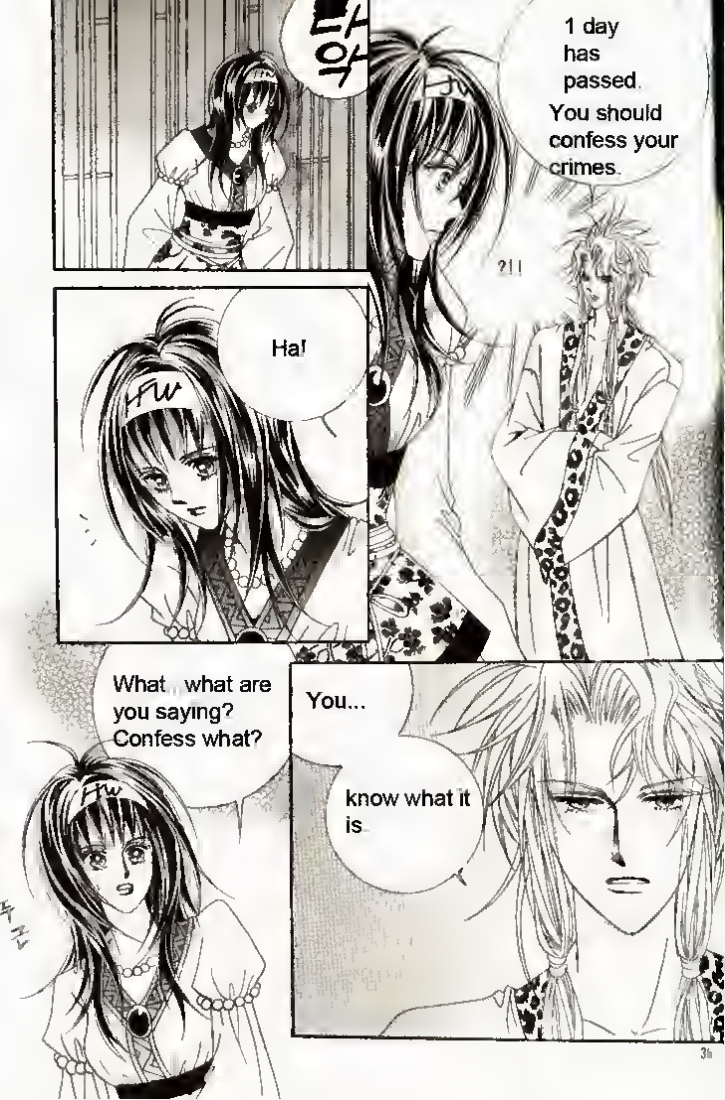
Come to your senses, he is my private doctor Please believe him.
Damn!
The person she was with definitely poisoned her. I've already sent people looking for him, but I can't find any traces
Then who was it?
The poison has already spread throughout her system, there's nothing you can do.
3 days. If during that time she still doesn't wake up, then she'll sleep for eternity
It could be a person sent by Hades.
If it is His Majesty then he should have taken the necklace. It's definitely not him

That doesn't matter. We only need the antidote.
But the antidote is very difficult to find. Even if we have it, using it is another matter.
Correct.
She would probably die. We should let her die in peace.
Who says she's going to die!?
She'll definitely wake up.

Hah.
Luckily she's sleeping. I would have been found out.
What has she done, what good points does she have?
Die..

*Open

I brought some food. You should eat.
You haven't eaten since yesterday. A food lover like you have moments like this?
*Puts down
No matter. Come.
NO.
I don't want to eat.
Then I'll put it here. When you're hungry, please eat it!



1 day has passed.
You should confess your crimes.
Ha!
What... what are you saying? Confess what?
You... know what it is.

You've set up everything
Give San the antidote.
I... I... I don't know what you are talking about How could I have done it to San?
If there was an antidote I would have already give it to him
Really?
You defintely are mistaken, I absolutely
Yes I've probably did.
Sorry

Hah.
Luckily she's sleeping. I would have been found out.
What has she done, what good points does she have?
Die..
